REDUCED IN RANK

Army Officer Found Gullty of Conduct Prejudicial to Military Discipline.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Nov. 12.-The Judge Advocate General of the Army has received the record of the cast of First Lieutenant Hugh Kirkman, Eighth Cavairy, who was tried by court-martial in the Department of Texas on the charges of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, and of conduct to the prejudice of good order of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

The specifications alleged that the accused, while in charge of the post exchange at Fort Sill. Olt., made false entries as to the amount of moneys deposited, with intent to deceive and also that he had appropriated to his own use $20 of the post's funds.

The court found the accused guilty, except the words "false, was known by him, the seld Lieutenant Kirkman, to be false, and was made with the intent to cover up a shortage in his accounts as post exchange onlicer, and to deceive the officer relieving him, substituting therefor the words "incorrect, and was made through negligence and carelessness without a proper investigation of his accounts at the bank."

the bank."

The finding of the court on charge one was "not guilty." but guilty of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in violation of the Fifty-second Article of War.

Fie was found guilty of the second charge and sentenced to be reduced in rank so that his name shall appear at the foot of the list of First Lieutenants of cavalry. The sentence was approved by the General commanding the Department of Texas.

TO PRODUCE A NEW TRANSLATION OF KING LEAR.

PUBLIC AND THE NEW YORK HERALD. Paris. Nov. 12 .- (Copyright, 1301.)-M. Antoine is still engaged in preparing to produce, at his theater, a new translat on of "King Lear," by M. Pierre Lote and M. Stadel.

The piece will be introduced without cuts, in twenty or twenty-saven scenes, necess tating fifteen sets of scenery. M. Antone thinks the system of darkening the stage to effect mechanical changes of scenery and gorgeous scenery effects adopted in London theaters is more suited to pantomine and quite out of place in classical drama. He does not, therefore, purpose to use the darkening system, and has surmounted the difficulty by an angenius arrangement which will not necessitate a continual lowering of the curtain nor interfere with the continued action of the play. The contributed of the inspector General of the Royal Theaters at Munich. The piece will be introduced without
